The Story of Adam and Eve

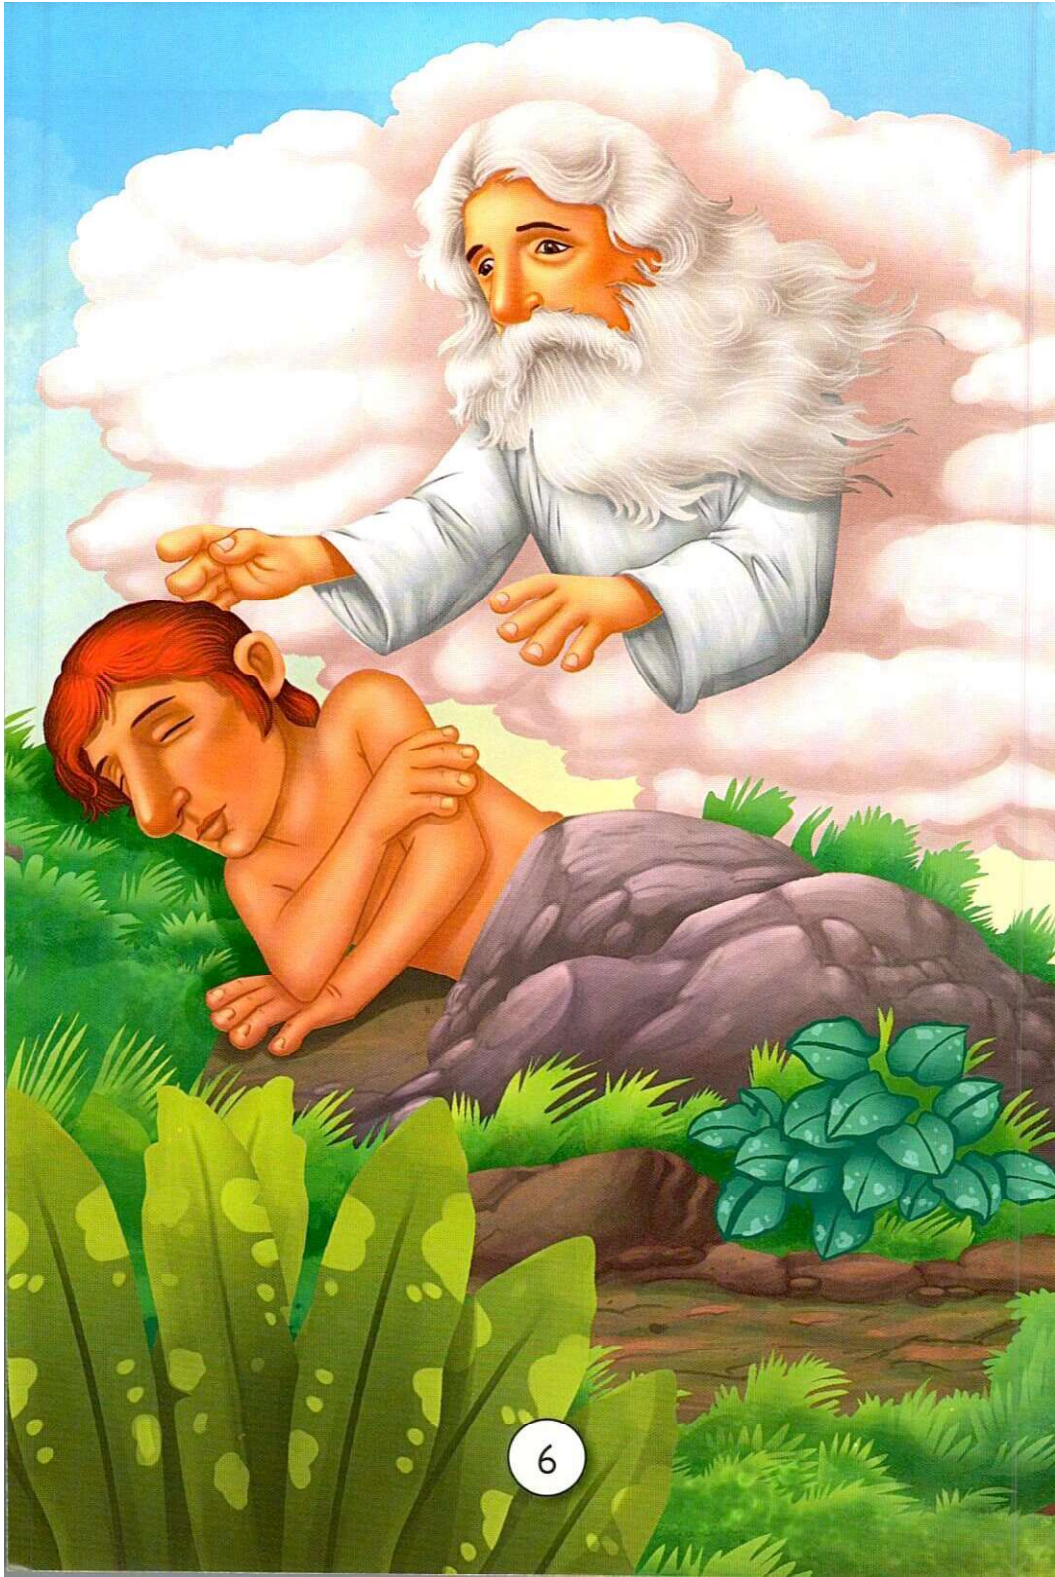

ALKA
PUBLICATIONS

God made the Earth beautiful
with mountains, rivers, and seas.
But he saw from the Eden Garden
in Heaven that there was no one to appreciate His creations.
He wanted to create a special creature now.

God made a creature using clay and also gave life to him. God was very happy with His creation and named it Adam. This is how the first man was born. Adam was lonely as he did not have anyone to give him company.

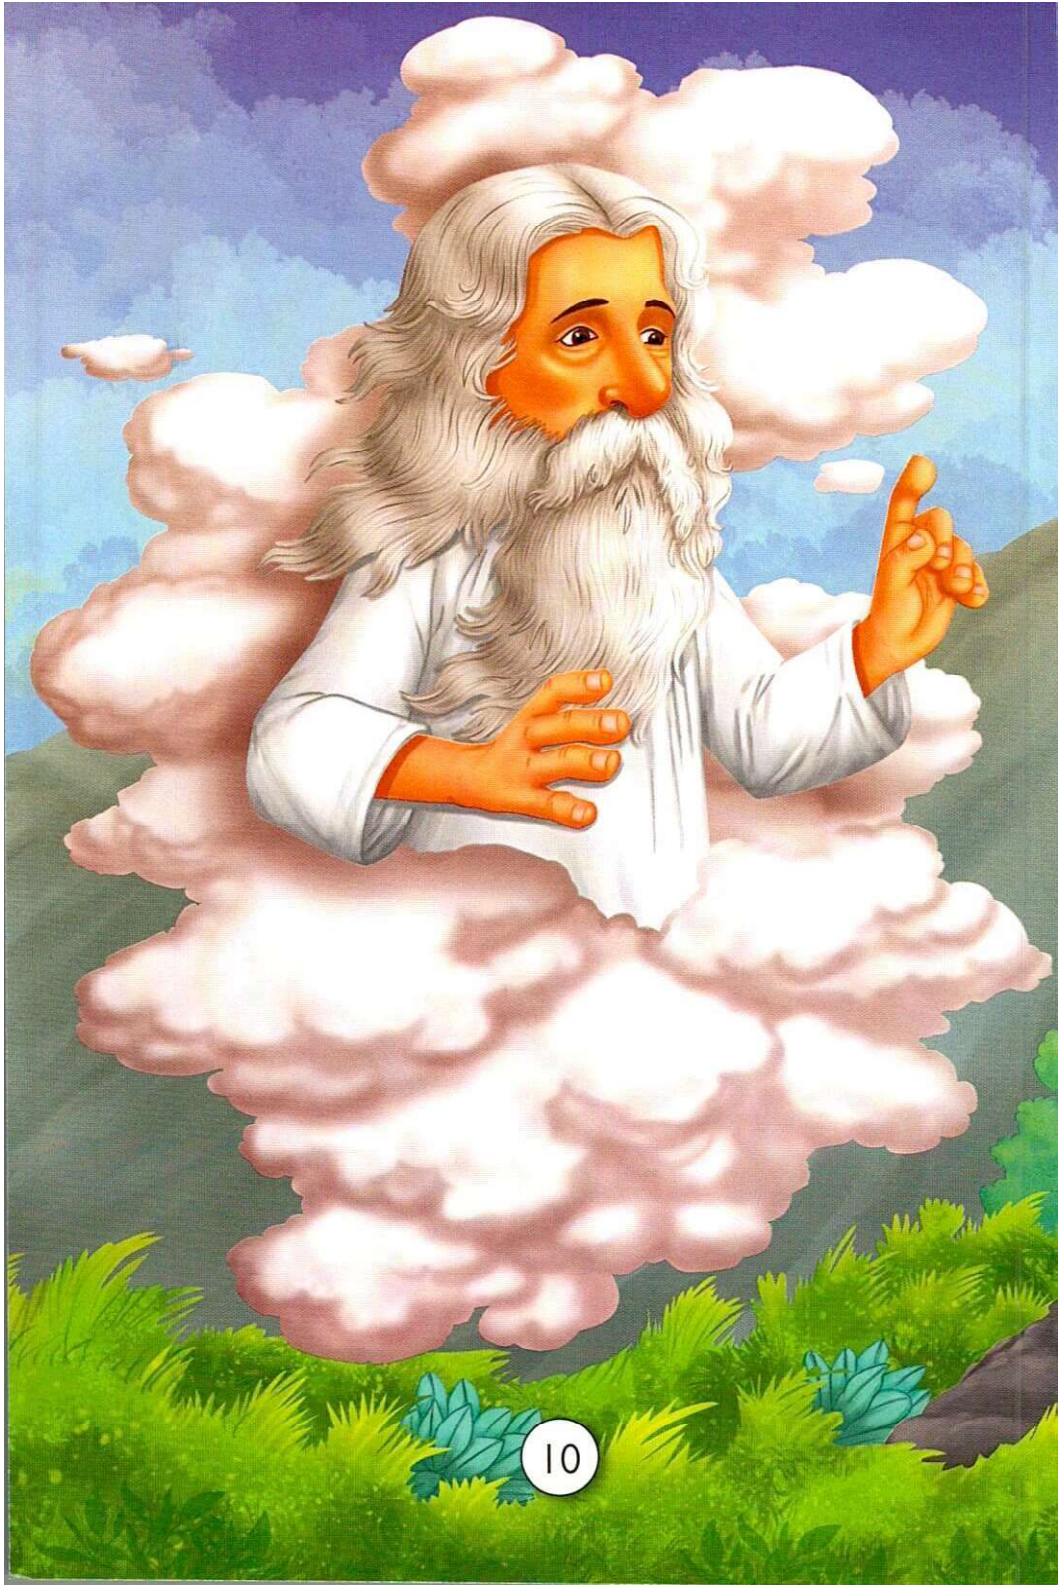

God understood that Adam was lonely. So, he took one of its ribs and made another creature using it. He named it Eve. She was the first woman and Adam's female partner. Adam and Eve were delighted to be in each other's company.

God told Adam and Eve to enjoy in His garden. But He asked them not to eat the fruit from the Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil.
For it was a sin and if they did so,
they would die.

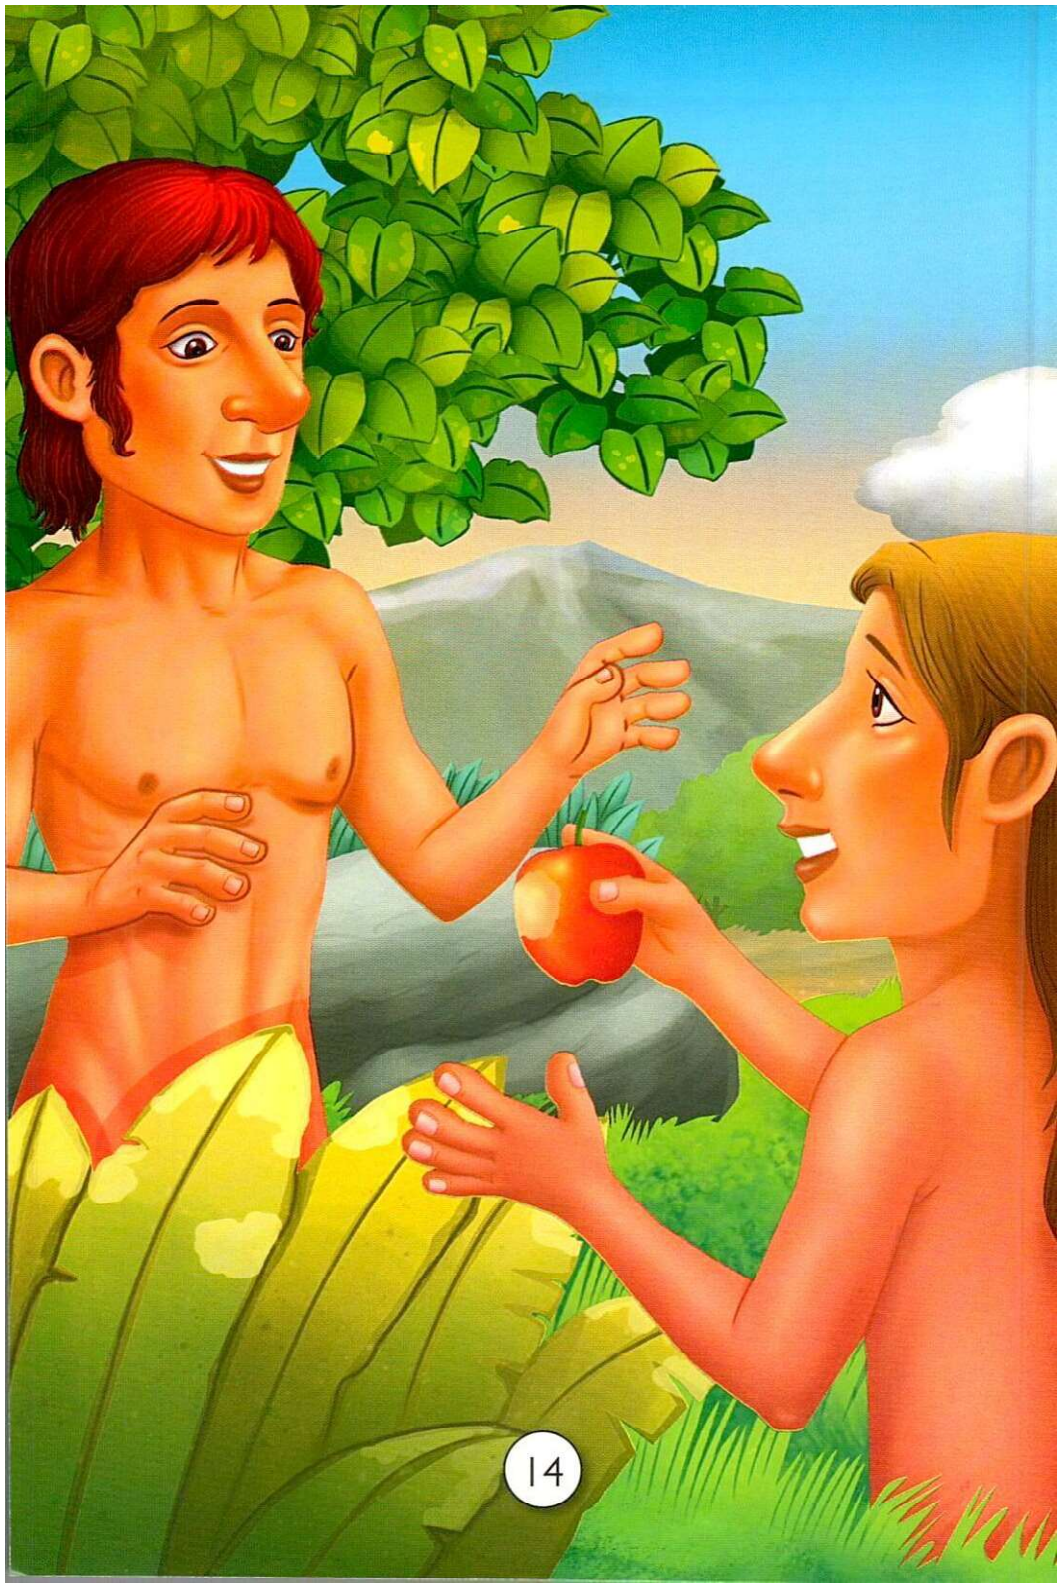

One day, Adam and Eve were walking in the garden when a serpent tempted Eve to eat the fruit from the forbidden tree. Eve was unsure but still she trusted the serpent which told her that eating the fruit would make her God.

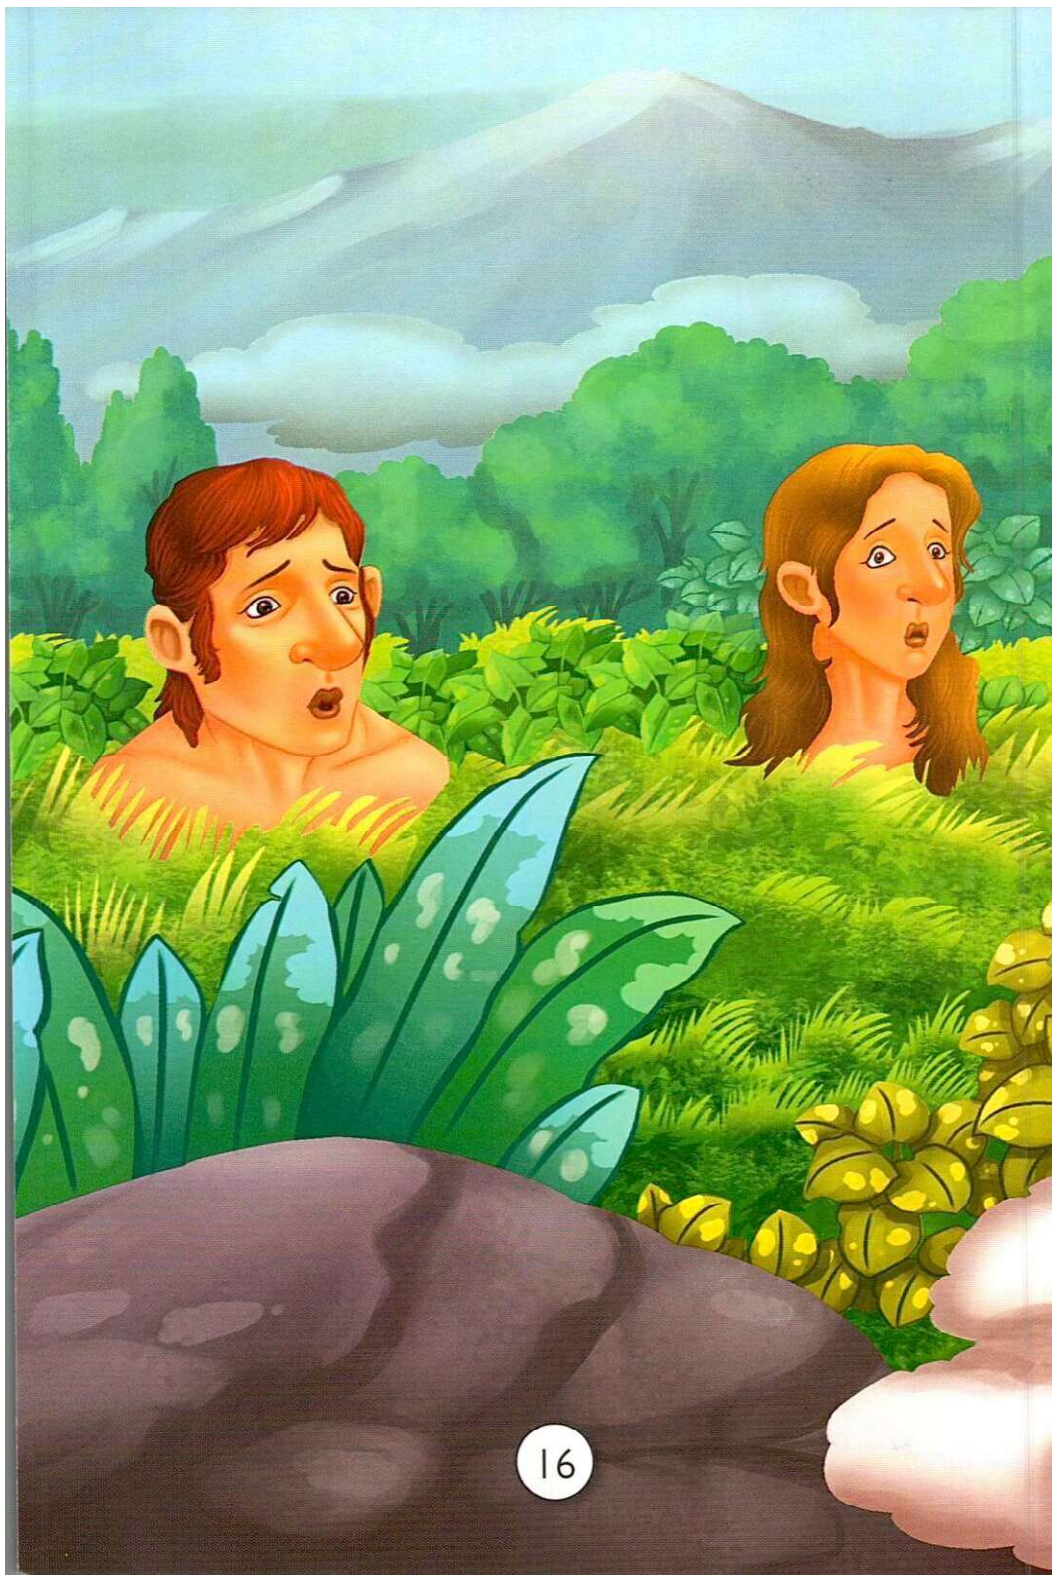

Eve ate the fruit and offered it to Adam who ate it too. After eating, they felt something strange happening to them. They felt powerless and naked before God and hid themselves behind the bushes.

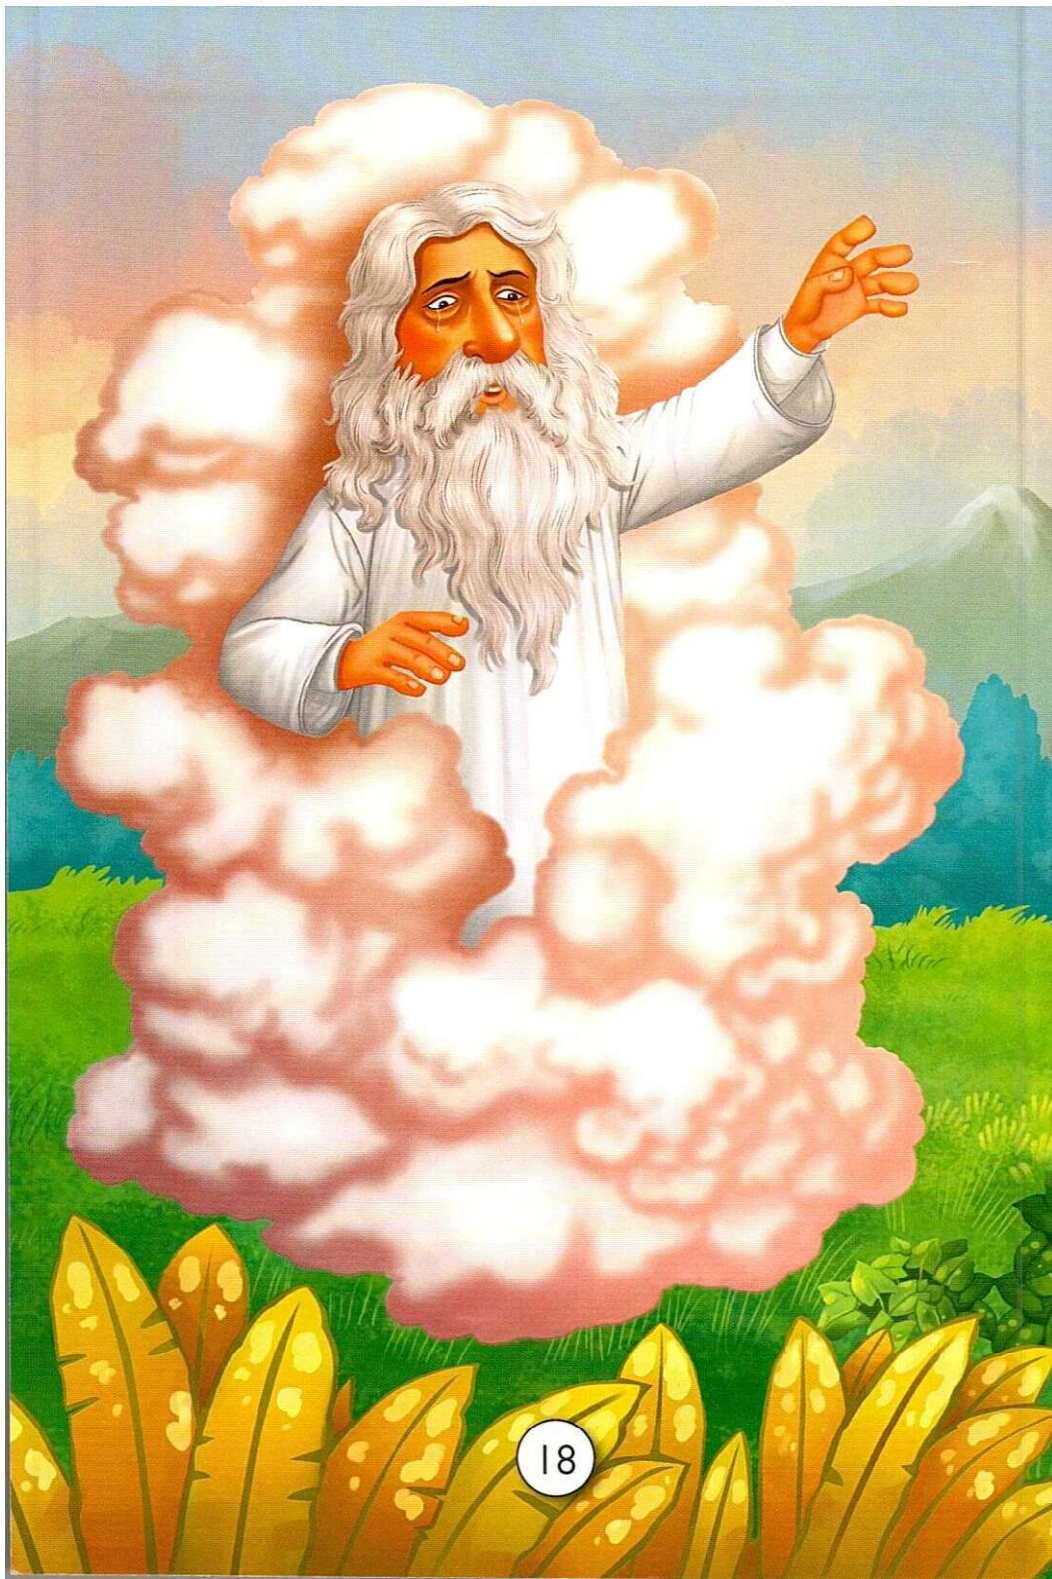

God couldn't find His beloved children in the garden and soon spotted them behind the bushes. God understood that they had sinned and scolded them for it but they blamed it on the serpent.

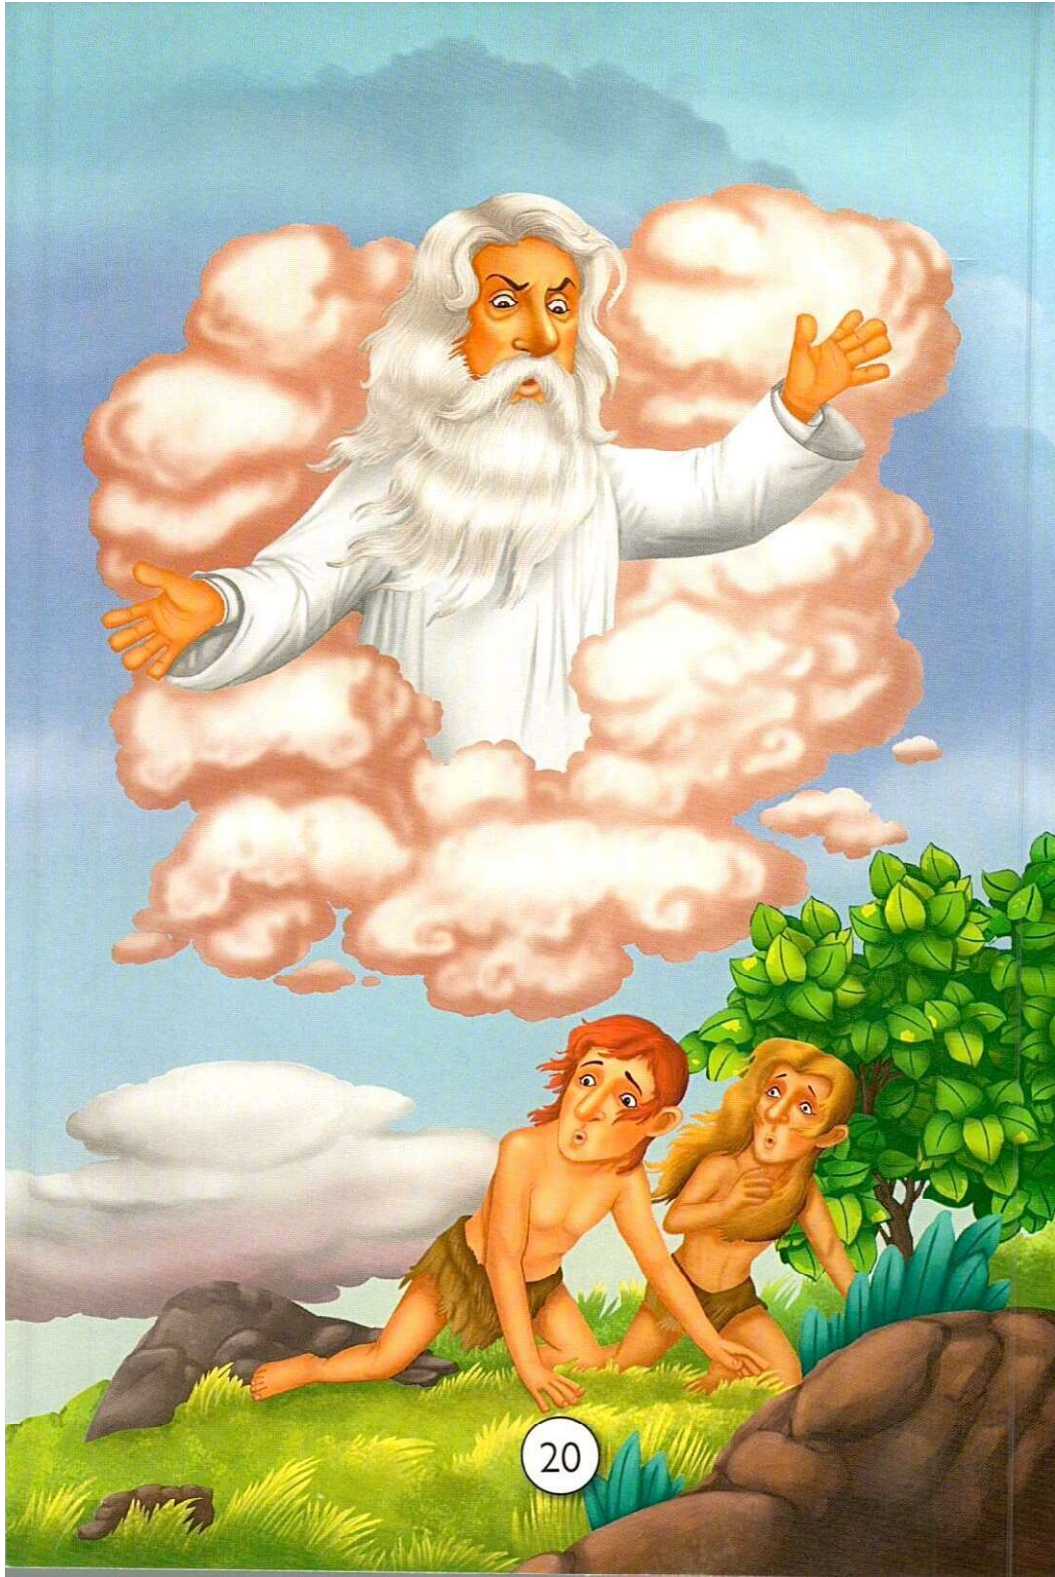

Adam and Eve had disobeyed God and trusted the serpent more than God. God was sad and disappointed. He asked them to leave Eden and live a painful life on the Earth as a punishment.

God cursed both Adam and Eve
and also the serpent. He said, ‘The serpent shall remain a low creature and Adam and Eve
would live a life full of hardships and challenges. They would die of old age and sickness one day.’
